

The Multipliers Pathway Church Planting Cohort

INFORMATION PACK
Fall 2025

ABOUT

Churches in the global north have lost ground like never before, with over 40 million people leaving the church since 1990 (Jim Davis, The Great Dechurching). In reality, we have reached everyone like us, or who wants to be like us. Our “come and see” posture is working less and less. Is there a solution? The answer is a resounding “YES”! God created us to multiply and fill the earth with His glory. The best is yet to come, but we must shift from addition to multiplication.

With only 7% of churches expressing any kind of reproduction at all, we must confront the brutal facts: we aren’t equipped to multiply. The prevailing operating system in our churches is fueled by sustainable addition growth, and how we have been adding actually suppresses multiplication.

The Multipliers Pathway brings together the best thought leadership and resources in multiplication, along with Auxano’s clarity and execution tools, to create a “how to” toolbox for multiplication.

Any Church is One Decision Away from Reproducing

Are you a church that has wanted to plant but not known where to start? Or maybe you’ve gotten started in church planting and now you’re ready to 10x your results? You shouldn’t have to figure it out on your own. And now you don’t have to!

You will conclude this journey with an actionable, customized multiplication plan. This playbook will get you into church planting in concrete ways and/or multiply your church planting results for greater Kingdom impact.

In the Multipliers Pathway Cohort, churches (you) will receive:

- A 6-month track: two in-person meetings and monthly 3-hour virtual sessions built around developing a multiplication plan
- A peer learning environment with other multiplying churches
- A collaborative environment for your key team (3 to 5 participants for each church)
- Tools for tuning up or installing a disciple-making engine

What is the backstory for Multipliers Pathway?

Todd Wilson, founding CEO of Exponential and Directional Leader of Renew Movement, has served churches, denominations, networks, and the broader “big C” church for two decades through stewarding the church multiplication conversation. He has curated and distributed multiplication resources that include frameworks that have become widely used by multiplication leaders in the U.S. and around the world.

To expand on his mission to help churches and leaders multiply disciples and churches, Todd Wilson became certified in the Auxano vision planning tools. Auxano is a category leader in clarity-first consulting. Using the best of Auxano’s vision planning tools, Todd created a simple process designed to move churches from the aspiration to the action of church multiplication. The Multipliers Pathway process brings the best multiplication content and frameworks together in a simple toolbox anchored with an executable multiplication plan customized to your church.

Who are the cohort coaches?

Brett, Todd, and Preston are passionate about seeing a new generation of healthy, reproducing churches fueled by disciple-making instead of institutional, programmatic growth. They are leading this new cohort. Todd is actively writing a book on eight dilemmas we face in overcoming the prevailing consumer-driven operating system.

David Putman

David serves as the Disciple-Making Lead for Planting the Gospel, a growing movement of disciple-makers committed to helping churches grow and multiply disciples. David is an author, disciple-maker, church planter, strategist, and coach. He and his wife, Tami, live in the Atlanta area. When he is not traveling around the country serving churches, he shepherds a local disciple-making movement in his fitness community, where they see disciples made to the third and fourth generations.

Todd Wilson

Todd is the founder of Exponential, a non-profit ministry committed to seeing multiplication become a normative measure of success in the church. He also serves as team leader of Renew Movement and Passion for Planting and strategic advisor to several national church planting ministries. Todd and his wife, Anna, live in Durham, NC. They have two sons and two daughters-in-law, Ben and Therese and Chris and Mariah, and are blessed with two grandsons.

Passion for Planting (church-planting.net) is a proven and experienced national support ministry that helps leaders start healthy, reproducing churches. They are partnering in this Multipliers Pathway initiative to provide coordination, administrative support, and technical support in using their best-in-class online project planning tool.

Cohort Details & FAQs

What are the deliverables of the Multipliers Pathway?

Every church that participates in the Multipliers Pathway process will 1) get practical tools to install a disciple-making engine in their church and 2) develop an actionable, custom multiplication plan.

Where and when will the next Multipliers Pathway in-person Cohort take place?

The next Multipliers Pathway Cohort starts in October 2025. We will schedule virtual and onsite options based on registrants' geography and other factors.

Can I do this by myself?

Multipliers Pathway is best engaged with a church leadership team of 3-5 primary leaders (lead pastor/planter, core team, leadership team, elders, etc.) who have the vision and time to invest in shaping the vision and plan for their church to pursue multiplication.

Our church is plateaued or in decline – should we participate?

The answer is, yes! There are two types of change: revolutionary and evolutionary. Churches in plateau and decline need revolutionary change. The Multipliers Pathway process can help churches learn new skills, develop a new sense of purpose, make key decisions and ultimately move from addition (which is not working for them) to multiplication (which is their only way forward).
